Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2, 8-26 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 2, 8, 9, 10, when considered as a whole, are allowable over the prior arts of record. The prior arts of record do not teach or suggest the combination of means, arranged and interacted to perform the step/means for selectively displaying a plurality of rooms with side bar slide animation.

Specially, Ludolph teaches when the user moves the pointer to a new expandable panel, the panel can expand and the content within the panel be repositioned. It could be done through a successive series of steps called transitional animation. There is a slow-in and slow-out period with this type of animation (column 10, lines 4-5). Once the pointer has been moved out of the panel, assuming the panel expanded. The contraction process also uses transitional animation (column 10, lines 49-54). Ludolph et al. also teach plurality of rooms which a user can move one room into another room by the window panel expansion and contraction; Beside, Ludolph, as disclosed in figure 2, teaches the parent room

"User Interface" and the child room "User Model", "Layout Guide lines"...which comprising a hierarchy of room.

However, none of the references teach the side bar is configured to allow for said side bar material corresponding to said second page to slide, via said first slide animation, into said side bar and said side bar is further configured to allow for said side bar material corresponding to said third page to slide, via said second slide animation, into said side bar wherein said first slide animation and said second slide animation being elements of an aesthetic set inherited from a parent room.

With such limitations, the Examiner deems this application in condition for allowance over the prior arts made of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
